I enjoyed the tour very much. As a "local", I knew a little about Chinatown but learned from the tour. I like traveling outside the state but there's lots to enjoy here, too. Alice Mak, Oahu resident

Last month's Slow Food Oahu Chinatown food tour offered me a new lens on a part of Honolulu where I have lived and explored for almost 30 years. What I learned has enriched my experience of where I live. I highly recommend this tour to kamaaina and visitor alike. Nancy Lewis, East West Center

Participants should wear good walking shoes and bring sunscreen and drinking water. To keep the tour small and intimate, registration limited to eight.
